

Position: SENIOR CRIMINAL INVESTIGATOR, AD-1811-00 ($88,369-$135,136 Annual)

FAX RESUMES TO: 703-428-0817

The Special Inspector General for Iraq Reconstruction (SIGIR) is seeking highly skilled and motivated current or former Federal Government Employees or United States Citizens to fill multiple Criminal Investigator positions. The positions are located, at a minimum, in Baghdad, Iraq for 75 percent of the assignment and in Washington, DC for 25 percent of the assignment. The full-time term appointment to this organization will be made in the Excepted Service. Those selected are expected to serve a minimum of 18 months and may be offered the option to extend beyond that date. This position is designated as Emergency Essential.

Applicants who are a graduate of a federal law enforcement academy are highly desirable.

Duties: As a senior-level criminal investigator, serves as a principal staff member exercising independent initiation, development, direction and coordination of criminal investigations in the Investigative Directorate; conducts specific investigations and establishes the scope of coverage to be accomplished on all investigations within the purview of the program of responsibility, which are initiated at Headquarters; coordinates investigations, often international in nature and may conduct investigations in which a large number of investigations from various field elements are involved; the investigations may also include other investigative units of the military departments, Federal, state, local and international governments; directs or coordinates investigative matters with other United States Government elements, USG investigative agencies and other government investigative agencies to include meeting and interacting with high level and executive level management at various organizations; maintains security and accountability of classified and sensitive information; and performs other duties as assigned. Must maintain proficiency in the use of firearms; requires good health and better-than-average fitness and may require travel world-wide in fulfilling investigative responsibilities. This position is subject to the Lautenberg Amendment/Domestic Violence Misdemeanor Amendment to the Gun Control Act of 1968. Must comply with random drug testing requirements.